FAYETTE COUNTY
IS REPUBLICAN.

No Doubt But That the Entire Ticket Has Been Elected.

THE $5,000 REMAINS INTACT

Haven't Been Called Into Use to Prosecute Election "Frauds"—Shelby May Lead the Ticket—McClelland Will Be Democratic Commissioner.

At noon today there was no doubt that the entire Republican county ticket has been elected. There isn't a break in the line from the top of the ticket to the bottom. At the same hour it was apparent that E. H. McClelland had been the Democratic choice for County Commissioner. He at that time was leading by from 400 to 500, an apparently safe margin.

Theodore D. Bliss is showing the greatest strength of the Democratic candidates but there is no question but that he has been defeated by Harry Kinsinger. H. Ray Shelby, Republican candidate for District Attorney, may lead the ticket, although William McClelland is showing great strength. Kiefer, from the returns that are in, has a lead of 1,500 over George McCormick for Sheriff.

The $5,000 "fund" subscribed by the Democrats remains intact today. If there was corruption at the polls it was evidently in such a quarter that the donors of the $5,000 did not care to spend their money prosecuting the case. In the Second ward, Uniontown, threats were made yesterday of arresting the election board, but nothing has come of it. Yesterday a man named Danula was arrested in Uniontown for illegal voting but it is understood the prosecution was dropped at noon today.

Few additional figures have been received since the returns that were sent in last night. Many of the returns were late, completing the full count and the election officers are now bringing the returns to the county seat. In the county districts few straight tickets were cast, largely because of local fights over the election of School Directors, Road Supervisors and other township officers. The returns do not indicate that the Republicans lost through the "split" tickets. The figures on the county election up to noon today indicate the following vote for the Republican and Democratic candidates:

Sheriff.
Kiefer	5,800
McCormick	4,400
Prothonotary.
Donnelly	5,070
County Controller.
McClelland's plurality	2,318
Craft	5,770
Robinson	3,857
County Commissioner.
Craft's plurality	1,702
District Attorney.
Shelby	5,083
Garr	3,023
Recorder of Wills.
Shelby's plurality	2,000
Recorder of Deeds.
Allen	5,432
Steele	3,535
County Treasurer.
Steele's plurality	2,470
County Coroner.
Kinsinger	5,201
Bliss	3,241
County Jailor.
Kinsinger's plurality	1,948
County Jailor.
Davis	5,432
Marshall	4,601
County Jailor.
Davis's plurality	1,431
County Jailor.
Holt	5,275
Orrible	3,187
County Jailor.
Holt's plurality	3,088
County Jailor.
Langley	5,200
Nutt	3,700
McClelland	3,816
Poundstone	3,450
Director of the Poor.
Barnhart	5,237
Jackson	3,184
Kern	3,227
Miner	3,281
This means the election of Barnhart and Jackson, there being two to elect.

Roulund Wins
by Close Vote

William Roulund will again be Constable of Dunbar township for the coming year. He was re-elected on Tuesday by the voters of Dunbar township after one of the hardest fights ever put up in the big township. George Clarke was Constable Roulund's opponent. The veteran official won out by the rather narrow margin of 23 votes.

Roulund was opposed by some workers in his own party who were looking for a meat ticket, it is said, in view of the outcome of the county election, or rather the primaries on September 26.

NEW SCHOOL DIRECTORS
WILL ALL BE REPUBLICANS.

All of the Democratic Candidates Went Down to Defeat in the Election Yesterday, Despite Hard Fight.

The new School Board will be solidly Republican. This is the first time that Conneltsville has had a board where every member belonged to the same political party. The Republicans had nominated a ticket and there was not a break in the line. The fight of the opposition was centered on the six year term and it is claimed that the present organization, which has lost every semblance of control on the new board, was interested in securing the election of certain Democrats.

Bert J. Thomas, the present Secretary of the board, had the backing of the present "organization" but the best he could do was to come in fifth in a field of 11 candidates. Three Republicans were elected easily. The vote of the members had made a decisive canvass and Thomas worked harder than any of the rest. The other candidates were apparently content to let the public judge.

The new board will be composed of the following seven members: C.

SHARP CONTESTS
IN MANY WARDS.

Constables and Election Officers Kept Interest Lively.

PARTIES DIVIDE THE HONORS

Charles Wilson Goes Down to Defeat in Third But Barthold Rottler Wins Out in the Second—Democrats Hold Third Ward Board.

There were lively contests in some of the wards over the election of Constables and election officers yesterday. The two old parties divided honors, but the Republicans got the best of it. The Democrats had a hard fight but finally succeeded in keeping control of the Third Ward election board. The Republicans made a splendid showing in the Third and nothing was clearly indicated this than the defeat of Charles Wilson for Constable by George Gregg. F. D. Munson, Republican, was also elected majority Inspector.

In the First Ward there was practically no opposition to the Republican nominees. J. W. Mitchell was elected Constable over John R. Bentley by 100 votes. Harry Hopkin defeated Marcus Gomas for Judge of election 157 to 48. The inspectors elected were U. L. Dorst and R. E. Porter, Republican and Democrat, receiving 162 and 62 votes, respectively.

The Democrats made a fight in the Second Ward and succeeded in retaining Barthold Rottler as Constable. They lost the election board, however. W. E. Nilsen, receiving 140 votes to 83 for M. J. King for Judge of election. The inspectors chosen were E. C. Humbert, Rep., with 142 votes, and J. H. Detemple, Dem., with 102.

In the Third ward George Gregg, Republican, was elected Constable over Charles Wilson, Democrat, 171 to 133. Larmer Stillwagon defeated William Bowlin for Judge, 163 to 140. The vote for inspector was 170 for F. D. Munson, Republican, and 124 for C. H. Bishop, Democrat.

In the Fourth ward J. B. Stonecker received a surprise when he lost out for constable, being defeated by J. W. Howard, Republican, 151 to 98. Stonecker had a hunch he would be chosen to wear the tin star. The election board in the Fourth is Republican. E. H. Christner receiving 106 votes to 80 for J. E. Hoeschell for Judge. The inspectors are O. R. Blackburn, Republican, and J. E. Bryner, Democrat, the vote being 161 to 76.

R. L. Sullivan had the nomination for constable on both tickets in the Fifth and won, handling, receiving 204

CONNELLSVILLE IS SAFE REPUBLICAN.

John M. Robinson Only Democrat Who Carried the Borough.

THE SOCIALISTS ARE STRONG

They Put Average of 250 Votes on the County Ticket, Hoggan, Schroyer in the Lead—Majorities Close to 300 and 400.

Conneltsville was safely Republican yesterday, the entire county ticket carried in this city except in the case of John M. Robinson, who led W. S. Craft by 166 votes. Robinson's strength was due to his popularity in Conneltsville, his home town, and he made a splendid showing in all the wards. He led all the candidates receiving 1,165 votes. Charles O. Schroyer was next, with 1,102 and M. A. Kiefer third with 1,002. B. H. McClelland led Poundstone for Democratic Commissioner by 147. Kern led Miner for Poor Director by 137.

There is no question but the election was the best conducted on the east side of the river, at least, in years. The First Ward election officers were particularly complimented on the fair and impartial manner in which they conducted the election laws. In the Third Ward, where a bitter fight was being waged in several quarters, the election board was fair and impartial. The Socialists were on hand in numbers about the polls and were active in their challenges, but in every instance the election boards followed the law.

The Socialist vote in the borough was a big surprise. It averaged 250 votes throughout the county and borough ticket. The Third Ward was the banner stronghold of the Socialists, where their vote ran over 60. In many instances the Socialist candidates ran close to the Democrats.

The fight in the Third was close and the parties divided honors. In the county ticket, John M. Robinson polled his largest vote in this ward. On the West Side, the Republicans scored heavily. In both wards the Democratic vote was almost a negligible quantity as far as the county ticket was concerned.

This Presidential vote was very light. It did not exceed 40 in the entire town. The Keystone candidates received a few scattering ballots, but the total was barely noticeable to the naked eye. It was well under a dozen. On the split tickets a number of the old party voters, in marking the ballots, here and there voted in the Keystone square where the candidate happened to be on two tickets, rather than vote for him as a member of the opposite old organization.

The vote on the county ticket in Conneltsville was as follows:

Sheriff.
M. A. Kiefer	1,002
George A. McCormick	608
Prothonotary.
William McClelland	500
J. E. Donnelly	497
Treasurer.
W. S. Craft	731
John M. Robinson	720
District Attorney.
S. Ray Shelby	905
W. Kinsinger	608
Recorder of Wills.
C. O. Schroyer	1,102
William Allen	472
Recorder of Deeds.
George C. Steele	672

The Springfields
Divide Their Vote

The two Springfield township districts polled a nice vote on Tuesday, the total vote of the two districts showing the result divided between the Republican and Democratic candidates. The vote on the county ticket between the Republican and Democratic nominees in Springfield Nos. 1 and 2 was as follows:

Prothonotary—William McClelland.
Shelby—Mar. A. Kiefer, 174; George A. McCormick, 177.
County Treasurer—William S. Craft.
Prothonotary—William McClelland, 190; Joseph E. Donnelly, 151.
County Coroner—Harry J. Bell.
Recorder of Deeds—George C. Steele, 194; Richard J. McGee, 146.
County Jailor—Harry Kinsinger.
Recorder of Deeds—George C. Steele, 194; Richard J. McGee, 146.
County Jailor—Harry Kinsinger.
Recorder of Deeds—George C. Steele, 194; Richard J. McGee, 146.

Director of the Poor—James J. Barnhart, 120; William P. Jackson, 120; Austin B. Kern, 120; David C. Miner, 120.

County Surveyor—James E. Hoggan, 180; John Dempsey Boyd, 101.

BLANKENBURG WINS FOR MAYOR IN PHILADELPHIA.

His Election on Fusion Ticket Conceded by 3,000 Plurality This Morning—Fusionists Also Get City Solicitorship.

United Press Telegram.
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8.—Rudolph Blankenburg has been elected Mayor of Philadelphia. The reformers also won control in several wards, and other minor officials. Late returns show that with the exception of Michael J. Ryan, Fusion candidate for city solicitor, the Republicans will retain the offices of City Controller, Sheriff, Recorder of Deeds and Coroner.

The streets are crowded with people today, relating in Blankenburg's election. Around the Union League headquarters several thousand sang hymns, led by the clergy. Early today it was reported that an attempt would be made to count out Blankenburg.

Braved over the reports on the score that Blankenburg was being counted out, a mob burst into the corridors of City Hall, stormed the doors leading to the private office of Public Safety Director Jay and yelled and hooted him. Police reserves and a motor squad dispersed them with clubs.

The crowd then gathered about the North Broad street station where the demonstration ended in a free for all fight when the parade met a crowd from the Leeds club. The police again dispersed the crowd after scores had been arrested.

The "counting out" rumor originated when it was alleged that the police were holding up division returns, as they had been sent to Keystone headquarters for over 30 minutes.

At noon the vote indicated Blankenburg's election by at least 3,000. Cleveland Democrat.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 8.—(Special.)—Newton D. Baker, Democrat, was elected Mayor of Cleveland by 17,500 plurality. Returns from Columbus indicate that in 35 counties 51 progressive delegates were elected to the Con-

Illegal Voting
Charged by Weihe

One arrest will be made in town as the outcome of the election. Yesterday Harry Weihe, one of the Socialist workers in the First ward, swore out an information before Justice of the Peace W. P. Clark charging a negro named Booth with illegal voting. Constable Mitchell has the warrant. He could not leave the polls yesterday and is looking for Booth. Friends of the negro say he will not attempt to evade arrest.

Booth is not a resident of the First ward. Booth told the election officers, and made affidavit to the fact that he resides on West Fairview avenue. It is said Booth will be able to prove his residence in the First ward. Weihe claims he lives on Eighth street.

F. P. MARR, FORMER
WEST PENN MAN, DEAD

Word has been received here of the death yesterday in Salt Lake City, Utah, of Frank P. Marr, right of way agent for the Kuhn Irrigation projects in Idaho. Mr. Marr was well known in Conneltsville, where he was located several years as right of way agent for the West Penn Railways Company.

Mr. Marr went to Salt Lake City to be operated upon for appendicitis. He died while under the influence of the anesthetic and as he lay on the operating table. The body will be brought to Conneltsville by the Kuhn Irrigation project. He had no children.

It was F. P. Marr who secured the greater part of the rights of way through this section for the West Penn. He was well liked, possessed of a genial, jolly temperament, and the news of his death will be a shock to his many friends in this section.

Mysterious Fire.
PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 8.—(Special.)—A spectacular fire of mysterious origin today burned the Iron City grain elevator, causing damage to the extent of $150,000. The building, situated at 4150, 900, The building, collapsed, and the steel was flooded with grain.

RUPPEL A WINNER
IN SOMERSET COUNTY

Fusion Candidate Defeats John A. Berkey the Republican Nominee

WITH NEARLY ALL DISTRICTS IN

Ruppel Was Leading Berkey by 700 Votes This Morning—Some of the Berkey Strongholds Furnished Surprises in Their Votes.

Special to The Courier.
SOMERSET, Nov. 8.—William H. Ruppel was elected Judge of the Common Pleas Court in Somerset county yesterday over John A. Berkey, the Democratic, Keystone Prohibition Republican ticket. Ruppel will have from 500 to 800, it was estimated, noon today. The balance of the Republican county ticket will go through with nice majorities.

The judgeship fight was a bitter one. In some of the supposedly strong Berkey districts there was a surprise in what was expected in the vote. This was a surprise in what was expected in the vote. This was noticeably the case in Windber where the vote was a stand-off. In West Windber there was a difference of only one vote.

At 10 o'clock this morning the election board in Somerset borough was not through counting the vote. The Ruppel supporters claim the borough by 125. Meyersdale ran close, while Lower Turkeyfoot was for Ruppel. The vote in Conferences had not been received up to 10 o'clock this morning. With only a few districts missing, however, Ruppel had in the neighborhood of 700 over Berkey just before noon today and the most conservative estimate does not give him much less than this on the official count.

The following figures on the judgeship fight were compiled from returns this morning and last night. Triumphant figures by districts in Somerset county's judgeship contest:

Fayette County's Newest Borough Dominated by That Party.

ERROR ON BALLOTS ALLEGED

Fayette county's newest borough has accepted the Socialist doctrine. That party made what amounted to a clean sweep yesterday. But for the fact that names of Socialist candidates for Council were left off the ballot there would not have been a single Democrat or Republican in Council. The Burgess, two justices of the Peace, Constable and Auditor are all Socialists and the Council will be dominated by that party. Most of the School Directors are Socialists also.

Not only did the local ticket go for the Socialists but they gave the county ticket majorities equally as large. The vote in the borough was as follows:

A Nice Vote
in Perry Township

Perry township No. 1 cast a nice vote at the election on Tuesday, the result of which for the county offices between the Republicans and Democrats was as follows:

Sheriff—Mar. A. Kiefer, 122; George A. McCormick, 140.
Prothonotary—William McClelland, 118; Joseph E. Donnelly, 151.
County Treasurer—William S. Craft, 117.
County Coroner—Harry J. Bell, 124.
Recorder of Deeds—George C. Steele, 194; Richard J. McGee, 146.
County Jailor—Harry Kinsinger, 120.
Director of the Poor and House of Employment—James J. Barnhart, 120; William P. Jackson, 120; Austin B. Kern, 120; David C. Miner, 120.
County Surveyor—James E. Hoggan, 180; John Dempsey Boyd, 101.

SOCIETY.

Social and Business Meeting.
The Men's Federated Bible Classes of Dunbar held its first regular social and business meeting last evening in the basement parlors of the Methodist Protestant church at Dunbar. A prayer was offered and short talks were given by H. B. DeYoe, President of the Dunbar district, B. S. Forsythe, R. Dawson, President of the Fayette County Sabbath School Association, spoke on "The Work Done and to Be Done." The question of holding meetings for social affairs, debates, etc., was discussed in general. It was decided by vote that this be taken up as a regular part of the classes' proceedings. A slogan of 100 men from Dunbar in line at Conneltsville in June was formally adopted by almost a unanimous vote. The meeting was opened by William Smith, as President of the Federated Class. Following a brief business session, the men engaged on oysters, pickles, coffee, crackers, etc. In the midst of the feast, Rev. T. M. Chaddes announced that the edibles were donated by William Smith.

K. of C. Dance.
Very enjoyable was the second of a series of dances held last evening in the K. of C. hall in the title & Trust building by the Columbus Club. Music was furnished by Kiefer's orchestra and dancing was indulged in from 8 o'clock until midnight.

Special Music.
A special musical attraction will be a feature at the Intervale Dancing Academy this evening at the Armory. Messrs. Armstrong and Dash, a great musical team, will be present and sing all the latest songs. The three dances to be introduced are the Cuban, the Valse and the Glen Worn. All who attend are promised a most enjoyable evening.

At Fairview Farm.
The L. L. Club was entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. C. W. Gallagher at "Fairview Farm," Dunbar township. It was the regular monthly meeting of the club and during the business meeting Mrs. W. L. Wright and Mrs. C. W. Ute were voted members of the club. Mrs. Harry Dunn was a guest of the club. The late books read by the members of the club were discussed and new books which the members expect to read were mentioned. Fancy work was indulged in and late in the afternoon a scenic luncheon was served from baskets prepared by the members of the club. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Kell Long in the West Side.

The District School.
An entertainment, "The District School," is being planned for the benefit of the Mercy and Aid Department of the Epworth League of the Methodist Episcopal church. The entertainment will be given on Thanksgiving night.

New Members Initiated.
Three new members were initiated at the regular meeting of the Daughters of Rebekah held last evening in Odd Fellows hall. In connection with the initiation business of a routine nature was transacted.

Miscellaneous Shower.
Mrs. William Warmuth was tendered a miscellaneous shower last evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clark G. Hise on East Main street. The affair was planned by several of Mrs. Warmuth's friends and was attended by about 40 guests. At a late hour refreshments were served. Mrs. Warmuth was formerly Miss Myrtle Hise.

Cards for Reception.
Mrs. James B. Stader has issued cards for a reception to be held Thursday afternoon, November 10, at her home on Cedar avenue in honor of Mrs. Catharine Johnson of Pottsville, the guest of Mrs. T. D. Donnelly. The hours are from 3 until 6 o'clock.

Intervale Dancing Academy.
A special musical attraction has been engaged for this evening, Messrs. Armstrong and Dash will sing all the late hits. This team comes from Longhite & Edwards, the house of hits, and they are the best in the road. Hear them. The Cuban, Valse, and Glen Worn dances will be taught this evening.

Sweetening Sour Dish Cloths.
One trouble with dishcloths is that they are hard to keep sweet, but they can easily be kept in good condition by washing occasionally in lukewarm water to which has been added a tablespoonful of Gold Dust washing powder; then scald, rinse and hang in the sunshine and fresh air to dry. Cheesecloth, unbleached cotton and heavy linen crash make most satisfactory dishcloths.

Where kitchen utensils become burnt or very "sticky" pot rings are easiest to use.

Celebrating 87th Birthday.
William Roland, a resident of Conneltsville for many years, is today quietly celebrating his 87th birthday anniversary at his home on South Eighth street, Greenwood. A family dinner will be held this evening at the Roland home in honor of the event. Mr. Roland is the father of Constable William Roland of Dunbar township, and M. J. Roland, proprietor of the West Side Hotel.

Truesdale in Town.
F. P. Truesdale of Uniontown, special freight and coke representative for the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, was in town this morning on business. Mr. Truesdale was in the wreck near Irwin when the Farmers' special ran into a coal train. He was badly shaken up but escaped with a slight bruise of the leg.

Cokers Take Floor in Game Tonight

The Cokers will give their first public exhibition of the season this evening in the West Side hall. A practice game will be played beginning at 7:30. Just how the teams will line up has not been decided as Horron and Cavanaugh are yet to report. If these two men arrive in time the Regulars will play the Yankees; if not, another lineup will be arranged.

Steve White reported last evening in fine shape and says he is going to surprise some of those fans who have expressed disbelief in his ability to "come back." White expects to play better basketball this year than ever.

RED

It's the Red Blood Corpuscles That Proper Food Makes.

An Ohio woman says Grape-Nuts food gave her good red blood and restored the roses of youth to a complexion that had been muddy and blotchy. She says: "For 10 years I had stomach trouble which produced a breaking out on my face. The doctors gave it a long Latin name, but their medicines failed to cure it. Along with this I had frequent headaches, nervousness and nightly pains in my stomach after meals. I got disgusted with the drugs, stopped them and coffee or short, and quit eating everything but fruit and Grape-Nuts, with Postum for my table beverage.

The headaches, stomach trouble, and nervous weakness disappeared almost like magic, which showed that when the cause was removed and good food and drink used nature was ready to help.

My blood was purified and my complexion became like a young girl's while my weight was increased from 90 to 120 pounds in a few months—good solid firm flesh, where it used to be soft and flabby.

I recommended Grape-Nuts and Postum to one of my friends, who was afflicted as I had been. She followed my advice and in a short time was restored to complete health and in about a month her weight increased from 100 to 130 pounds.

"Our doctor, observing the effect of Grape-Nuts and Postum in our cases, declared, the other day, that he would hereafter prescribe these food products for gastritis." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

A COSTLY FIRE.

Farmer's Wife Accidentally Burns a Nice Wad of Money.

A farmer, living near Charlotte, Mich., didn't exactly have money to burn, but nevertheless he, or rather his wife, burned it anyway. He was one of the few people of the present day who think banks aren't safe, so he hid his money in a safe in his kitchen. His wife, having some special cooking to do, forgetting all about the hidden funds, started a roaring fire in the stove and a summer's savings went up in smoke. This leads us to point out, once again that an old established, responsible bank is always the best place for surplus funds. The First National of Conneltsville, for instance, which has been in business 35 years, is an absolutely safe depository and money placed in its Savings Department earns 4% interest. It opens an account.

Bryan Sees Cheer.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 8.—(Special.)—The election results indicate a drift everywhere strongly towards Democracy. Congress now only needs to keep its nose. With a genuine Democrat who believes in Democratic principles at the head of the ticket we shall sweep the country in 1912," declared William Jennings Bryan today.

WHY DO THEY DO IT?

"Why people should weep over the imaginary sorrow shown on the stage, when there is so much real sorrow in the world, I never could understand," says a well-known writer. And it is just as hard for us to see why people will suffer needlessly for months or years. Here is the case of M. Carter of South Akron, O., who says: "For two years I was in a badly run-down condition, felt weak, and miserable and lost considerable flesh. Then I heard that Vinol was a great thing to build up the body and create new strength.

"Now, after taking Vinol and getting so much good from it, I have decided to write and tell you that it has made me strong and well again, and I have gained in weight, too."

If you are weak and sickly, need new strength and better blood, take Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron remedy, for depend upon it, Vinol is what you need and it will build you up. We guarantee it—money back if you are not satisfied.

At the regular meeting of the Dunbar borough school board on Monday night, it was decided that the board to grant to all the pupils not missing any or not tardy during the month, a half holiday at the end of the month. This custom is being used in Dunbar township so as to increase their attendance and is very satisfactory.

It was thought by the board that with the giving of a half holiday that this would cause the children to take more interest and that there would be less tardiness and they would endeavor to be present every day, so they would be granted the half holiday. It is expected that this will increase the per cent of attendance.

VOTE IN NEW JERSEY.

Looks as Though Republicans Have Won Over Democrats.

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 8.—Returns at midnight indicate that the Republicans will control both branches of the Legislature next winter. Gloucester county, according to early returns, was in doubt, decided a Republican Senator, and this will make the Senate stand 11 Republicans to 10 Democrats.

The Assembly will be made up of approximately 33 Republicans to 22 Democrats. Last year's Assembly consisted of 42 Democrats and 18 Republicans.

13,000 Millers

started out to make flour.

And the millions of housewives watched them.

In the course of years one miller's flour came to far outsell the rest.

The demand grew and grew, until that miller's flour fed 24,000,000 folks daily.

The winning flour is Gold Medal.

And it won by comparisons.

Millions of women, watching millions of bakings, came to demand that flour.

The reason lies here:

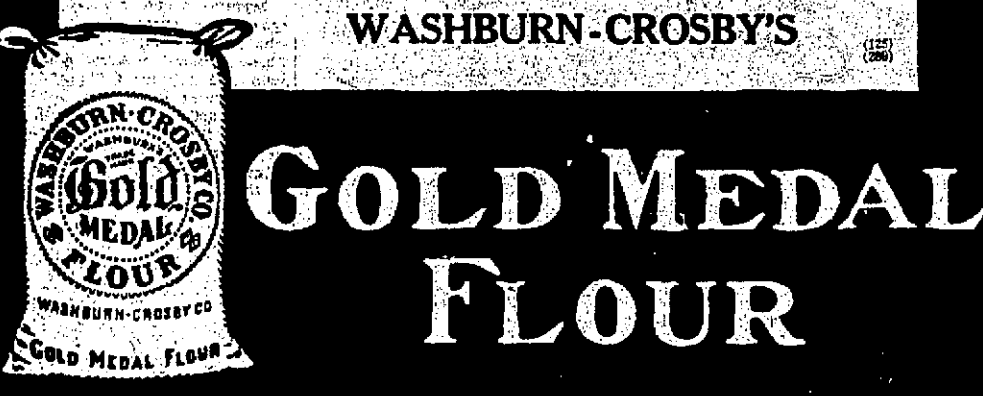

We built our own test kitchen.

Day after day, year after year, we learned the requirements of perfect flour. We learned the wheat that makes it.

Now we grind that wheat through 20 sets of rolls. Now we sift it through 10 silk cloths.

And the flour that results has won millions and millions to

FOR SICK, SOUR, BILIOUS STOMACH, INDIGESTION AND GAS TAKE CASCARETS.

That awful sourness, belching of acid and foul gases; that pain in the pit of the stomach, the heartburn, nervousness, nausea, bloating after eating, feeling of fullness, dizziness and sick headache, means indigestion; a disordered stomach which cannot be regulated until you remove the cause. It isn't your stomach's fault. Your stomach is as good as any.

Try Cascarets; they cure indigestion because they immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested, and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the decomposed waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels. Then your stomach trouble is ended forever. A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box will keep your entire family feeling good for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle, cleansing, too.

A NEW CHURCH FOR DEDICATION.

It Was Built at Prittsstown, Near Scottdale by Former Pastor.

THE SERVICES NOW GOING ON

Rev. H. B. Seese, Started United Evangelical Work There and Will Be Back to See New Building Put into Use—Schedule of the Meetings.

Special to The Courier.
SCOTSDALE, Nov. 8.—Preparatory services have been going on during the week at the new Mt. Carmel United Evangelical church, at Prittsstown, which church was built during the pastorate of the Rev. H. B. Seese, of Scottsdale now of Johnstown. The church at Prittsstown draws from a large surrounding territory without any church, and has a growing membership. The dedication services take place next Sunday. Among those who will be present will be Rev. J. C. A.
Curry, A. M. D. D. of Johnstown, who will officiate. Rev. A. J. Bird of Somerset, Presiding Elder of the Somerset district, will have general charge of all the dedicatory exercises.
The regular dedicatory services open on Saturday evening at 7.30 o'clock with a sermon by Rev. A. J.
Bird, and this will be followed by the celebration of the Lord's supper. On Sunday there will be Sunday school at 9.30 in the morning, and at 10.30
there will be the sermon by Rev. J. C.
A. Curry. At 2.30 in the afternoon there will be a platform meeting presided over by Rev. Curry, and with addresses by ministers of Scottsdale and vicinity. At 7.15 there will be a praise service conducted by Rev. Bird and at 8.45 there will be a sermon by Rev. Curry followed by the dedication of the church. During the day visitors and friends will be served dinner and supper free.

A prominent figure of the services will be the former pastor, Rev. H. B.
Seese who is now well known here, and the present pastor Rev. A. E. Lehman a young man who is keeping the work moving. Following the dedication Rev. Seese will conduct several weeks of evangelistic services.

The services this week were conducted by Rev. M. V. Deane of Mt.
Pleasant on Monday evening and Rev.
C. M. Haines of Scottsdale on Tuesday evening. Rev. A. J. Bird, Presiding
Elder will conduct them this evening.
Rev. M. H. Rhyer, pastor of the Alver-ton Church of God will conduct the services Thursday evening, while the services Friday evening will be conducted by Rev. M. C. Clements, of Bridgeport and on Saturday evening as previously noted.

BAD BREATH.

It's Your Duty to Get at the Cause and Remove It—A Word to the Wise You Know.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets the substantive for catamenial will positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The plant sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system of impurities.

They do all that dangerous cathar-tics without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, gripping cathartics are derived from Olive Tablets without griping, pain or disagreeable effects of any kind.

Dr. T. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint with the attendant bad breath.

Olive tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil.

Try Olive Tablets today. Take one every night for a week and note the effect.

"Every little Olive Tablet has a movement all its own."

At all drug stores for handy pocket packages—15 tablets for 10c, 45 tablets for 25c.

Made by the Olive Tablet Company of Portsmouth Ohio, or Columbus

dent.

"Fixing" the Ball Grounds.
Much of the talk in the American Magazine of the queer ethics of the national game. He writes:

"Fixing" the grounds so as to give the home team the advantage and making the visiting players by the convenient form of trickery, yet in professional ball it is not considered wrong, nay more than a commendable if a defensive arm, would consider it wrong to permit broadwork to meet an enemy. The extent to which the fixing of grounds is carried is amazing. There probably is not a major or minor league grounds in the country on which the home players have not the advantage, and visiting teams are forced to be on the alert from the moment they enter a field to discover, if possible, what they are up against."

Announcing an Engagement.
Polly declared she must have some unusual way of announcing her engagement, so after much careful thought this was evolved. The twenty special friends were asked for a thing like party, and there was nothing doing until refreshments were served. Then each guest found a little envelope on the plate, and the hostess explained that inside there would be found a jumbled lot of letters, that the letters of each color would spell out words, and there was just one word in each envelope, and all were the same color in each envelope so each one made their word, and the light gradually dawned as the story was told by the guests putting their words together.
It was great fun and ended the evening in a most happy manner, as the little bride elect was a great favorite, and she was fairly beaming when all began to offer good wishes and wanted to know "all about it."

Good Form in Table Setting.
At luncheon for a small party, a small plate and knife are placed beside the larger one. On this are placed the bread and butter which should be spread in small portions of a mouthful.

The dinner roll is taken from the napkin and laid on the cloth at the right side of the plate.

Cake may be eaten after the same manner as bread, broken off in mouth fuls and conveyed to the mouth by the fingers or with a fork. The latter is preferable especially in the case of a moist cake or one with a soft filling.

Corn on the cob is a finger food, requiring considerable skill to dispose of with anything resembling grace.

An orange, like corn on the cob, requires skillful handling. A good way is to cut it in quarters, peel each quarter and split them again in half and press out the seeds thus achieving a comfortable mouthful.

Restaurant Etiquette.
Those who have dined in restaurants or hotels habitually will find that they have fallen into many bad habits, and ways, permissible possibly toward a landlord, but not toward a hostess.

They feel that they have the privilege both to criticize openly and to imply criticism either of the food itself or of the way in which it is served. Women who cherish the ambition of making poor, forlorn hostesses happy with "home cooking" have their hopes dashed by this ungracious habit. Let those, too, who have fallen into the habit of dipping a spoon or fork into a glass of water at a restaurant, and then wiping it on a napkin before using it beware of these moments when they become deeply absorbed in conversation at the house of a friend or even at the home table. Could any habit be more insulting to a hostess?
Harper's Bazar.

Milady's Letters.
Plain white or gray sheets, folded once into envelopes and black ink are the approved materials for social correspondence. It is not a good plan to use a pronounced type of stationery.
The plain and simple varieties are always in the best taste. White, gray or gray blue blanknote, line or cream lined papers all severely plain, are the only varieties a man can use in correspondence. A woman must be even more particular.
Credits, monograms and addresses may be engraved stamped or embossed on the stationery of both men and women. Fads in stationery are sometimes of a pronounced type, but as a rule they last only a short time and are taken up by few people only. In the event of a monogram on the paper it is a good plan to have the letter in very small type.

A Word to the Debutante.
The formal affair which introduces a young girl to society, follows closely the form of an afternoon tea.
The debutante, escorted with a thought for youth with flowers on arm, stands with her mother and usually she asks two or more of her favorite girl friends to receive with her.
She dispatches a card to the friends to the reception if they have none at their disposal introduces them to all the callers and entertains them at dinner afterward. Sometimes as an added courtesy she presents each of them with a bouquet to carry during the afternoon, first ascertaining the color of the gown to be worn so that the flowers may be harmonious.
Flowers sent as remembrances by friends and relatives are arranged tastefully about the room.

A Few More Don'ts.
"There are three 'don'ts' which every clergyman could with propriety add as a homily to the wedding ceremony," remarked an unhappy looking married man. "Don't argue, don't bicker, don't nag, and the greatest of these is don't argue for in the trail of argument troops bickering and a host of other petty, disagreeable traits which lead straight to disaster."

"The habit of arguing over trifles is a dangerous one, yet one that is indulged in by women, and particularly American women. It is not going too far to say that the American woman is more given to argument than any other. She contracts the habit in the cradle and successfully carries it through life."

Brown October Ale

can trace its ancestry very far back To the gentlemen in powdered curls and plumed hats the alehouse was what the club is today. There they went for their "morning draught" (in lieu of breakfast); there they talked politics at night. They drank ale at home, too. One of these worthies writes in his diary: "Home . . . to a game at cards, supper, some apples and ale, and to bed with great pleasure, blessed be!"

That was nearly three hundred years ago, and ale is still the best-esteemed beverage of this season of the year

Returns This Morning Indicate the Defeat of

BERKEY BOYD AND STEEL

Copeland Has Likely Won Orphan's Court Election and Cramer Will Be Treasurer—Reamer, Shields and Brechbill the New Commissioners.

Special to The Courier.

GREENSBURG, Nov. 8.—Incomplete returns from throughout Westmoreland county show the election of eight of the ten Republicans on the county ticket. Indications are that the Democrats will share honors in the court house, C. D. Copeland, Democrat, probably having been chosen judge for the orphan's court, while James M. Cramer of Youngwood, is evidently a winner over Berkey H. Boyd for county treasurer. Copeland and Cramer showed surprising strength in almost every section of the county. Ben Steele, Republican, defeated Squire J. Q. Truxal, Democrat, by a good majority. W. Dick Reamer and John E. Shields are elected County Commissioners, with George Brechbill high man on the Democratic ticket and therefore a winner. The success of the other Republican candidates was manifested from the very first precincts which reported. The results show that voters split their tickets right and left.

An unexpected turn was the way votes piled up for James M. Cramer, the Youngwood millionaire, candidate for county treasurer. He took the lead over Boyd in the early returns and gradually increased it. In 32 districts Cramer has 4,735 and Boyd 4,432. Cramer made great gains in Scottsdale.

In the fight for commissioner W. Dick Reamer leads the ticket. The fight against John E. Shields was fruitless as he is a winner by a big vote. George Brechbill is high man on the Democratic ticket. Reamer, Shields and Brechbill being the three commissioners chosen. If Albert Lauffer, Keystone candidate did not show much strength.

The election of all the other Republican candidates was conceded even before the polls closed. They have maintained the normal Republican majorities. Indications are that John S. Seil, for controller, will lead the Republican ticket. David A. Miller, registrar of wills, won over Wade T. Kline by a large majority. Dr. L. C. Thomas is chosen recorder of deeds by a big vote. Dr. H. Albert McMurray is elected coroner over Dr. R. J. Hunter, while Burgess Ross, for county surveyor, has a easy victory over David Walkshaw.

In 32 districts received at Republican headquarters the commissioner vote is: Reamer, 4,641; Shields, 3,992; Brechbill, 4,076, and steel 3,729.

THIS IS IMPORTANT.

Graham & Co., of Connelville, and S. A. Lowe & Co., of Scottsdale, desire to announce that they are the Agent for Thompson's Barrenness, the Money-Back Kidney and Liver Cure.

There are hundreds of people, young and old, right here in Connelville and also in Scottsdale who are taking medicine for various ailments, who do not even suspect that the kidneys are to blame.

These sufferers do not know that in all probability their kidneys are all clogged up, are inflamed or congested, and are unable to properly filter the impurities from the blood.

It is the kidneys that keep the blood pure, and if the kidneys are not in good condition, disease of other organs of the body will surely develop. Thompson's Barrenness will cure any disease of the kidneys, or Graham & Co., and S. A. Lowe & Co., will give you your money back.

If you are in ill health now, and are not absolutely certain of the cause, get a 50-cent bottle of Thompson's Barrenness at Graham's or Lowe's today. It will make you feel better in a day. It will tone up your kidneys, liver and bladder in a week.

It is the best investment you can make. It is worthy of a trial on our guaranteed plan. Ask for Thompson's Barrenness. The dollar bottle contains more than twice as much as the fifty-cent size.

Athens the Seat of Learning.

It may be said undoubtedly that the country which has produced the greatest men in literature and philosophy, art and architecture is Greece. In the little state of Attica—not much larger than Greater New York—there civilization and all that goes along with it were born. All that has been done since the "Age of Pericles" has been simply the carrying out of the ideas, principles and methods laid down by the men who won Marathon and Salamis, Plataea and Mycale. Clanton, a high authority, does not hesitate to say that Athens and the little state of which it was the capital produced more first class intellects than have since been produced by all the world put together.—New York American.

A SURPRISE PARTY

Held on Saturday Evening at Shunk Home at Morrell.

A large and enjoyable surprise party was held Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. John Shunk at their home in Morrell. The affair was planned by a number of their friends and came as a complete surprise to the couple. Various parlor games were played until a late hour when a delectable luncheon was served by the hostess.

The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pockstaller, James Morgan and James Quinn of Adelphi; Misses Anna and Cella Lynch, Bertha Wandel, Rose Lininger, Ruth Smith, Gertrude Shunk, Mary Wile, Mary and Lona Hatter, Hannah Williams and Patricia Lynch. Charles and Herman Baughman, Frank Hatter, Eugene Dwyer, John and Pryor Trim-bath, Fred Pockstaller, Edward Shunk, Nick Pockstaller, Willie Seauker, Norman Williams and Julius and Arthur Baughman, all of Morrell.

ANSWERS EVERY CALL.

Connellsville People Have Found That This Is True.

A cold, a strain, a sudden wrench. A little cause may hurt the kidneys. Spills of backache often follow. Or seems a warning of the price. A certain remedy for such attacks. A medicine that answers every call. Is Don's Kidney Pills, a true specific.

Thousands of people rely upon it. Here is one case:

Mrs. D. L. Coffman, 11 W. Craig Street, Uniontown, Pa., says: "I know that Don's Kidney Pills are a good kidney remedy, for they have been used in my household with the best of results. Two years ago a member of the family was troubled by a lame back and other symptoms of kidney complaint. Don's Kidney Pills were so highly recommended that their use was begun and it was not long before they removed the lameness and soreness and corrected the kidney weakness. I have never had occasion to take Don's Kidney Pills myself, but I know that they live up to representations."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McIlburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

SEASICKNESS.

It is Not Inevitable, and in Rare Cases It Causes Death.

In the light of modern intelligence the once popular idea that seasickness was of real benefit to the sufferer and that it never terminated fatally has been exploded. Not only is this malady to be guarded against by every means possible, but it is even to be dreaded by those who are not over-sensitised as leading to possible fatal results.

The old fashioned notion that a good dose of seasickness was beneficial was due wholly to the fact that upon recovery the victim of mal de mer is usually so delighted that he is apt to imagine that he never felt better in his life, while feeling normal again is merely so great a contrast to the exceedingly wretched condition which this disorder brings about that exaggeration of one's feelings is the most natural thing in the world. Seasickness is far from pleasant. It is not beneficial, and in rare cases it terminates fatally.

There is one consolation, however, that with the growth of the size of ships and the increase of speed travelers are to a certain extent insulated against it or if attacked are certain that the sufferings will be short.—Marine Journal.

GREENE DEMOCRATIC.

A Light Vote Was Polled, However, in the Country Districts.

WAYNESBURG, Pa., Nov. 8.—(Special.)—The Democratic ticket has won in Greene county by the usual majority. A light vote was polled for all the county offices and the only interest was in the election of county commissioner on the Republican ticket.

The returns are incomplete, but indicate the election of T. J. Ross and Jesse McNeely, Democrats, and Lisbon Scott, Republican.

Musterole Means Mustard Oil—

Combined with other simples used in home medicine.

It is a clean, pure, white ointment that does all the work of the good old-fashioned mustard plaster—but does it better and without the blister.

MUSTEROLE GIVES ALMOST INSTANT RELIEF FROM ACES, PAINS AND SORENESS, AND NOT A BLISTER REMAINS.

Instead, it has a delicious, comforting, soothing effect.

You simply rub MUSTEROLE on briskly and the pain is gone!

MUSTEROLE is so penetrating that it enters the pores at once, stops the sharp twinges—brings ease and complete relief—and breaks up the congestion.

Mustard has been a family remedy for centuries.

THE MUSTEROLE COMPANY, Cleveland, Ohio

I am prescribing MUSTEROLE. Several people keep it constantly in their homes.

A MOUNTAIN RESCUE.

Presence of Mind That Stopped a Slide to Death.

On entering central Asia after a trip across India Major R. L. Keenland witnessed a rescue which was due to the quickness of decision and prompt action of a native. The story is given in "Sport and Life" in the Farther Horizons.

The party had started to climb over the pass called Minata by moonlight. The cold was intense and the way slippery and uncertain.

No one having crossed the pass that year, the guide took a wrong line and led us across an ice slope that was concealed by snow. The first I knew of it was seeing his dim figure begin to slide downward, first slowly, then more rapidly. We were not roared, and as his pace increased it seemed that nothing on earth could save him.

Near the end of my line, however, carrying a load, was a man of Hindu, whose quickness to grasp the situation was only equaled by his resource.

MISS MINERVA and WILLIAM GREEN HILL

By FRANCES BOYD CALHOUN
(Copyright, by Kelly & Nelson Co.)

CHAPTER X.

Lot The Poor Indians. Billy had just decided to run down to the livery stable to pay Sam Lamb a visit when the gate opened, and Lina and Frances, their beloved dolls in their arms, came skipping in. Jimmy, who had had a difference with Billy and was in the sulks on his own side of the fence, immediately climbed over and joined the others in the swing. He was lonesome and the prospect of companionship was too alluring for him to nurse his anger longer.

"Aunt Minerva's gone to the Aid Society," remarked the boy. "Don't you wish it met every day? 'Said 'er 'mamma' 'er Monday?"

"Yes, I do," agreed Frances, "you can have so much fun when our mamma goes to the Aid. My mamma's gone too, so she left me with Brother and he's writing a letter to Ruth Shelton, so she slipped off."

"Mother has gone to the Aid, too," said Lina.

"My mamma too," chimed in Jimmy, "she goes to the Aid every Monday and to card parties nearly all the time. She told Sarah Jane to tell me and Sarah Jane's asleep. I hear her snoring. Ain't no glad there ain't no grown folks to meddle? Can't we have fun?"

"What'll we play?" asked Frances, who had deliberately stepped in a mud puddle on the way, and splashed mud all over herself. "Let's make mud pies."

"Now, we ain't a going to make no mud pies," objected Jimmy. "We can make mud pies all time when grown folks 'r looking 'er."

"Let's play stamp!" what we ain't never play, sense we's born," put in Billy.

"I hope grandmother won't miss me," said Lina, "she's reading a very interesting book."

"Let's play stamp!" yelled Jimmy. "We ain't never play stamp."

This suggestion was received with howls of delight.

"My mamma's got a box of red stuff that she puts on her face when she goes to card parties. She never puts none on when she just goes to the Aid. I can run home and get the box to make us red like Indians," said Frances.

"My mother has a box of paint, too."

"I ain't never see Aunt Minerva put no red stuff on her face," remarked Billy, disappointedly.

"Miss Minerva, she don't never let the Major come to see her, nor go to no card parties," explained Jimmy. "She just goes to the Aid where they ain't no men, and you don't hatter put no red on your face at the Aid. We'll let you have some of our paint, Billy. My mamma's got 'bout a million different kinds."

"We got to have pipes," was Frances's next suggestion.

"My papa's got 'bout a million pipes," boasted Jimmy, "but he got 'em to the office, I spee!"

"Father has a meerschaum!"

"Aunt Minerva ain't got no pipe!"

"Miss Minerva's 'bout the curliestest woman there is," said Jimmy, "she ain't got nothing a tall, she ain't got no paint and she ain't got no pipe!"

"Ladies don't use pipes, and we can do without them anyway," said Lina, "but we must have feathers, all Indians wear feathers."

"I'll get my mamma's duster," said Jimmy.

"Me, too," chimed in Frances. Here Billy with flying colors came to the fore and redeemed Miss Minerva's waning reputation.

"Aunt Minerva's got a great, big buncher turkey feathers and I can get 'em right now," and the little boy flew into the house and was back in a few seconds.

"We must have blankets, of course," said Lina, "with the air of one whose word is law, 'mother has a genuine Navajo.'"

"I got a little bow arrow what Santa Claus bring me," put in Jimmy.

"We can use hatchets for tomahawks," continued the little girl. "Come on, Frances, let's go home and get our things and come back here to dress up. Run, Jimmy, get

"Bennie Dick can be a papoose," suggested Billy.

"I'm not going to be a Injun papoose. I got to have a nigger papoose strapped to my back, cried an indignant Frances. "You can strap him to your own back, Billy."

"But I ain't no squash," objected that little Indian.

"We can have our dolls for paposes," said Lina, going to the swing where the dolls had been left. Billy picked a piece of string from his pocket and the babies were safely strapped to their mothers' backs. With stately tread, headed by Sitting Steer, the children marched back and forth across the lawn in Indian file.

So absorbed were they in playing Indian that they forgot the flight of time until their chief suddenly stopped, and his brave valor gone as he pointed with trembling finger up the street.

That part of the Ladies' Aid Society which lived in West Covington was bearing down upon them.

"Yonder's our mamma and Miss Minerva," he whispered. "New look what a mess Billy's done got us in, he all time got to perpose sompin' to get chillions in trouble and he all time got to let grown folks ketch 'em."

"Aren't you ashamed to tell such a story Jimmy Garner?" cried Frances. Billy didn't propose any such thing.

"Tain't no use to run," advised Jimmy. "They're too close and done already see us. We bound to get what's coming to us anyway, so you might just as well make 'em think you ain't afraid of 'em. Grown folks got to all time think little boys and girls 'r 'scaared of 'em, anyhow."

Aunt Minerva's who put me to bed this time," said Billy. "Looks like every day I gotta go to bed."

"Mother will make me study the catechism all day tomorrow," said Lina sadly.

Mamma'll lock me up in the little closet under the stairway," said Frances.

My mamma'll gimme 'bout a million licks and try to take all the hide off o' me," said Jimmy, "but we done had a heap of fun."

It was some hours later. Billy's aunt had busily clipped the turkey feathers from his head, taking the hair off in great patches. She had then boiled his scalp so the little boy thought, in her efforts to remove the muck. Now, with a pair of scissors and of some of his courage, the child was sitting quietly by her side, listening to a superior moral lecture and indulging in a compulsory heart-to-heart talk with his relative.

"I don't see that it does you any good, William, to run, you to bed."

"I don't see as it do neither," agreed Billy.

"I can not whip you. I am constitutionally opposed to corporal punishment for children."

"It's posed to it too," he asserted. "I believe I will give a servant, so that I may devote my entire time to your training."

This prospect for the future did not appeal to her nephew. On the contrary it filled him with alarm.

"A husband is another sight," he declared, with energy, "and do a heap more 'count to you a cook, Aunt Minerva. There's that Major."

"You will never make a preacher of yourself, William, unless you improve."

The child looked up at her with alarm. "I believe I will give a servant, so that I may devote my entire time to your training."

"A husband is another sight," he declared, with energy, "and do a heap more 'count to you a cook, Aunt Minerva. There's that Major."

"You will never make a preacher of yourself, William, unless you improve."

The child looked up at her with alarm. "I believe I will give a servant, so that I may devote my entire time to your training."

"A preacher what 'zorts an' calls out mourners," he said, "not on your line. Me an' Willie Booth live."

"How many times have I expressed the wish not to have you bring that negro name into the conversation?" she impatiently interrupted.

"I don't perzactly know, 'm 'he answered good humoredly, "bout fifty hundred. I reckon. Anyways, Aunt Minerva, I ain't goin' to be no preacher. When I puts on long pants I'm goin' to be a Confed'it Vet'ran an' kill 'bout fifty hundred Yankoes an' Indians, like my Major man."

CHAPTER XI.

New Chapter Me This.

The children were sitting in the swing. Florence Hammer, a little girl whose mother was spending the day at Miss Minerva's, was with them.

"Don't you all wish Santa Claus had his birthday right now 'stead o' waitin' till Christmas to hang up our stockings?" asked Frances.

"Christmas isn't Santa Claus' birthday," corrected Lina. "God was born on Christmas and that's the reason we hang up our stockings."

"Yes, it's old Santa's birthday, too," argued Jimmy. "Cause it's in the Bible and Miss Cecilia's 'plained it to me and she 'bout the dandiest 'plainer there is."

"Which you'll like the best? God or Doctor Sanford or Santa Claus?" asked Florence.

"I like God 'nother sight better'n I do anybody," declared Jimmy, "cause He so forgivingness. He's 'bout the forgivingest person they is. Santa Claus can't let you go to Heaven nor Doctor Sanford neither, nor our papa and mamma nor Miss Minerva. Now wouldn't we be in a pretty fix if we had to 'pend on Doctor Sanford or Santa Claus to forgive us every time you run off or fall down and bust your breeches. Naw, gimme God ev'ry time."

"I like Santa Claus the best," declared Frances, "cause he isn't 'r ever getting in your way, and hasn't any castor oil like Doctor Sanford, and you don't 'troyer have to be telling him you're sorry you did what you did, and he hasn't all time got one eye on you either, like God, and got to follow you 'round and Santa Claus don't all time say, 'Shet your 'r."

FAMOUS AMERICAN INDIANS

ALBERT TAYLOR TERHUNE

BILLY CALDWELL.

"The Sanguanash" was his Indian title. He was better known to red and white men alike as Capt. Billy Caldwell. He was half Potawatomi, half white. His immediate nationality was even more mixed than his ancestry. On his mother's side he came of the bluest Potawatomi in Indian stock. His father was an Irish officer. He was brought up a French mar received a captaincy from the British government and was a civil official in the United States. First and last, however, by his own choice, he remained an Indian chief.

Caldwell was born in 1780 in Canada. As a child he fell under the wise, kindly influence of the Detroit Jesuits. From them he received an excellent education and became master of both the French and English languages in addition to his knowledge of many native Indian dialects.

When only a lad he met the great Tecumseh and instantly enrolled himself as that Shawnee's pupil and disciple. The two were dear friends until Tecumseh's death. But the Shawnee could never imbue Caldwell with his bitter hatred against the white men. Although Caldwell proclaimed himself a loyal Indian he could never wholly forget that he was half English. He fought for the British against the United States in the war of 1812. Rising rapidly in rank he became captain in Great Britain's Indian department. Though he lived in the United States after the war was over, he never renounced his allegiance to the British crown. He held office under our government but was president of his rank of captain in England.

His part from this captaincy, he was also a chief of the Ottawas and the Potawatomis.

The Chicago massacre.

Caldwell is said by some historians to have been the most of the Indian as an ally at the "Chicago massacre" in 1812. Others say he refused to take part in the conflict.

When the pioneers there "he had escaped the hatchets and rifle" the attacking Indians were dragging an open square for torture and death. Caldwell hurled himself between them and their bloodthirsty captors. By his threats and cajolery he saved the lives of his captives and was the only one who escaped such unfortunate as fell into hostile Indian hands.

Consequently Caldwell was known as "the white man's friend." This fact was some of his Indian comrades hate him and more than one plot was formed for his assassination. Yet undisturbed by praise or hate he continued to further the affairs of his own people.

Chicago had become a thriving settlement for what was then known as the far west. And, leaving the wild life of his people Caldwell went to Chicago to live as the white man did. This caused still further illfeeling among the Potawatomis and the Shawnees. The latter would dominate the situation. Even as he was half white and half Indian by birth, so he lived among the white townsfolk and at the same time held his rank among the savages.

So readily did Caldwell take to the ways of his adopted land and so quickly did he demand the respect and trust of the western pioneers that in 1826 he was sworn in as a justice of peace. He sat in judgment on countless involved frontier cases where his shrewd common sense and ideas of right made him a valuable asset to his partial ignorance of law.

The End of a Career.

So many clashes between settlers and Indians did he avert that the government decided to reward him. Accordingly, in 1828 the Indian department built for him the first frame house ever erected in Chicago. It was situated near the corner of Chicago avenue and North State street. There Caldwell lived until 1836. Then he went back to the Indians of his own tribes and settled with them at Council Bluffs, Ia. In the meantime the government had presented him with a 240-acre tract of land on the north branch of the Chicago river. He sold this for a trifling sum before he turned his back on civilization.

After a 16-year sojourn with white men, the old Sanguanash found rough Indian life less to his taste than he had hoped. Yet he stayed with the tribesmen at Council Bluffs until his death on Sept. 28, 1841.

Billy Caldwell, the Sanguanash, had a less melodramatic career than did many other famous Indians. Yet he did more than most of them to help along the cause of progress and civilization in the far west. To him in great measure was due the usually peaceful relations between settlers and savages in the semi-lawless section where he was so feared and honored.

Kentucky was the first State to give women the right to vote. In 1818 that State gave the school suffrage to "colored" children of school age. Kansas was the first State to give the school suffrage to all women and the first to give the right to vote to all women.

Take Tona Vita for Nervous Debility

Every large city in the United States contains countless numbers of worn out half sick men and women with poor appetites and bad digestions. They have no energy, little vitality and are despondent and nervous.

They have cold feet, shallow complexions and they say they are run down.

The right name for the trouble is nervous debility and it is produced by the strain and hustle and worry of modern life.

Many think indigestion causes the half bad feeling which afflicts them and they take "something to digest" their food. This is all wrong. It may afford temporary relief but the cause of their stomach trouble is the nervous debility condition of the entire system and this must be overcome before the stomach will perform its functions properly.

Nervous debility is a modern ailment caused by city life. There is a modern tonic that overcomes this trouble. It is called Tona Vita. You are afflicted with nervous debility, don't wait another day feeling miserable. Stop doing your stomach. Get this great tonic and you will be astonished how quickly your strength and ambition will return and how your stomach trouble will disappear.

Tona Vita is sold on trial and must bring back your health or the price is refunded.

Leslie's Rubarb Laxative is the assistant remedy to Tona Vita and is used in cases of chronic constipation. There is nothing equal to Rubarb as a natural harmless laxative. Rubarb does not irritate the intestines and leaves them weak. Rubarb acts as a tonic and gives them strength. Tona Vita and Leslie's Rubarb Laxative are sold in Connelville by A. A. Clarke. They are splendid modern medicines.

MISS DOROTHEA KEYES, IN "SILVER THREADS AMONG THE GOLD."

Keyes Sisters Stock Company. The second performance given by the Keyes Sisters and their clever company was presented last night at the Soisson. "The Daughter of Paris" was the play and it was one of the best acted plays seen here at popular prices in a long time. It is a little different from anything the Keyes Sisters have given Connelville before and was handled with skillful care. The parts were well cast and showed careful stage direction. Miss Helen Keyes in the part of Marguerite was especially clever. Mr. Byron handled his part in a very capable manner. Miss Dot Keyes won favor in her singing specialty and as usual Miss Keyes came in for applause with his comedy songs. The stage settings were especially pretty and showed much care. On account of the X M C A Lecture Course number tonight the Keyes Sisters will not give a performance but on Thursday evening they will resume their engagement with "Silver Threads Among the Gold."

A beautiful play founded on the famous song, "The Daughter of Paris," is displayed every afternoon and night. A box of candy is given all the child ren at the Saturday matinee.

"Darlings of Paris." If you have a "grouch" or "a joy killer" in your family, buy him a ticket for "The Darlings of Paris." he may lose his heart to one of the bathing beauties, but even that is preferable to the growth of habit. A $10,000 diamond decked gown is one of the many unusual attractions to be seen in "The Darlings of Paris," which comes to the Soisson theatre Monday, Nov. 13. This production, in scenic display, elaborate costuming, color blending and beauty of the female form during, is a close rival of "The Merry Widow." A most marvelous lifelike presentation of "living pictures" is one of the striking features as well as one of the most sensational scenes ever presented on any stage. For this feature a company of New York's most famous artists models have been engaged at an enormous expense depicting in real flesh and blood the works of the world's greatest masters. The action of the play carries you rapidly from the sublime to the ridiculous. In fact nothing better nor half as good is likely to be seen at the Soisson this season. It is more Parisian than Paris. One of the unique features is "The Cobble Rag."

Can't Cure Catarrh

Stomach Dosing, Sprays and Douches Have All Failed

There is only one way to cure Catarrh.

Reach the raw, tender, inflamed membrane that is infected with catarrh germs, and destroy the germs. You can't reach the pocks and ulcers and excoriated surfaces of the inflamed membrane with sprays, douches, or stomach dosing. Only HYO-ME! (pronounced Hye-oh-mee) directly reaches the infected parts.
